

14th Annual Graduate Translational Research Award

$500 Prize to Recipient

Applications due by Feb. 18, 2022

The Graduate Translational Research (GTR) Award promotes the mission of University of Maryland (UM) Ventures, Baltimore to translate basic research outcomes into real-world applications. Presented in collaboration with the Graduate Research Conference (GRC), this award recognizes important translational research performed by a UMB graduate student or postdoctoral fellow.

The GTR Award recipient will receive a $500 check and a certificate of recognition at the GRC awards reception.

Applicants will be evaluated on their GRC oral or poster presentation in addition to a separate, written application for the GTR Award.

Written applications must include:

1. An outline of the focus and potential uses of the research, including how the research might ultimately be exploited to develop a product (e.g., drug, device, diagnostic, etc.) for public use and benefit.
2. A summary of the original aspects of the research project.
3. The current stage and future plans for the research.
4. The applicant's name, UMB e-mail address, a phone number where they may be reached during business hours, and the name of their research advisor.
5. Applications should not exceed two pages (12-point font, single spacing, 1-inch margins).

The GTR Award application must be emailed to Dr. Nancy Cowger, Director of Licensing for UM Ventures, Baltimore, at ncowg001@umaryland.edu by Feb. 18, 2022 with the subject line "Application for Graduate Translational Research Award."
